Ancestry Library is back at the Daland Memorial Library

How much do you know about your family history? Is your family new to New Hampshire, or have you been here for decades—or even for centuries? Where did they come from originally? When and where were they born? What did they do for a living?

Now you can find out.

Through a program initiated by the New Hampshire State Library, public libraries throughout the state, including Daland Memorial Library, now have access to Ancestry.com's Library Edition, which includes more than 7,000 databases that deliver billions of records using censuses, vital records, immigration records, family histories, military records, court and legal documents, directories, maps and more.

Ancestry.com's Library Edition is available only at participating libraries; you cannot log in from home. Patrons with laptops can access the information on site at libraries with wireless internet access.

The service is easy to use: to get started, all you need is a name. Ancestry.com's Library Edition then searches its databases to find everyone with that name, or even names that are similar.

The more information you have—country, state, year of birth, etc.—the more Ancestry can filter its databases to help you narrow down your search.

You can learn not only about people's birth, marriage and death dates, but also their jobs, how long they went to school, who lived with them and other interesting facts. You can even view enlistment records and, in some cases, find the streets they lived on or learn their phone numbers.

New content is always being added, so you can keep coming back to discover more about your ancestors—or even others.

To date, more than eighty New Hampshire public libraries are using Ancestry.com's Library Edition through the group organized by the New Hampshire State Library. As more become interested, they will be able to add this service.

Help with Downloadables!

Have you tried using our link to downloadable audiobooks and ebooks? Many people received ebook readers for Christmas and can now download free content from the Overdrive site. Many of us are loving our free audiobooks. The State Library technical services department has created a new blog to help you get started, work through some issues or answer your questions. This new site is: <http://nhdbooks.blogspot.com>. We have also put a link to this new site on our web page.

The Daland has a movie license!

The Friends of the Daland Library have generously funded a movie license for the library. With this annual performance license, we can show an unlimited amount of films for any aspect of programming inside the library. We can show any DVD that is in the library, or a at a home or local video store. Renting, borrowing and buying legal copies to use is acceptable. Outside groups in the community can also show movies in the library with this site-based license. Are you interested in showing a film for a Senior Coffee, Book to Movie Discussion, Girls' Night Out, Dinner and a Movie, Scouts, Garden Club, Artisans or any other group? Contact the library for more information.

BOOK GROUP NEWS

March 7 – “Nickel & Dimed” by Barbara Ehrenreich

January’s gathering featured nine book group members diligently sorting out titles that were interesting to many and diverse in their categories. We have chosen six fiction, three non-fiction, one biography and one autobiography. (See the complete list of our 2011 book selections below.) Jane’s mother provided molasses cookies for refreshment to Edith’s delight!

The library’s adult book discussion for February will feature “The Book Thief” by Markus Zusak, and for March “Nickel & Dimed” by Barbara Ehrenreich. Library Director Karen MacDonald purchases a copy of each selection for the library collection. Any title may be borrowed by a library patron.

Our next two discussions will be held at the library at 9:30am on Monday, February 7 and March 7. All are welcome! The library normally locates copies of the current read and has them available for the book group to borrow the month before we meet. For more information please call the library at 673-7888.

New checkout policy for book groups

All books used by book groups will now be checked out through the library circulation system. We will advance the date so that your copy is due on the date that your book group meets. Please be prompt in returning books that you have borrowed.

If you know you cannot make the meeting, please drop the book off before the due date or within a day. If your group date is changed, we will make the necessary adjustments. We’re changing our policy in order to have better knowledge of exactly who has our borrowed copies and to make sure that we get these copies back on time to the loaning libraries. Interlibrary loan is made possible through the generosity of other libraries and a great statewide delivery system. Interlibrary loan books will now be subject to fines. As always, you have a day of grace when returning items.

Meeting called to order at 7:30 p.m.; Library Director Karen MacDonald presiding at the request of Amy White.

1. Minutes for November 22, 2010 meeting accepted as published in the December 2010 newsletter.
2. Correspondence - Karen MacDonald
 - A. A Christmas card received from an insurance company no longer used by the Friends.
 - B. Thank-you note from Library Assistant, Allain Schnable, for the Friends sponsored library staff appreciation brunch and gift.
 - C. Thank-you note from Lisa Cassidy, who keeps our library clean, for the appreciation gift she received from the Friends
 - D. A copy of the Association of Library Trustees newsletter was received and passed around . (NOTE: We voted at a meeting last year to no longer subscribe.)
3. Treasurer's Report - Karen MacDonald reporting for Joan Brogioli
 - A. There is a need for a treasurer. Joan served for two years. She is willing to continue for another month, but will then step down. Hilary Sonner is unable to take on the responsibility. Ginny Covert, who has served as treasurer in the past, offered to fill in on a temporary basis. If there is a Friend who would be willing to take on this responsibility, please let Karen know.
 - B. Account information:
 Citizen checking account $450.36 *
 ING Direct account . . . $2,181.93
 Fidelity account ...$18,273.04(as of 12.6.10)
 TOTAL $20,905.33
 * this account is low because of the following recent expenditures:

The Holiday Toy Store donation	$75.00
Postage	$44.00
Movie Licensing USA	$295.00
Toadstool Bookstore	$292.50
TOTAL $707.50 (edit - corrected total should be $706.50)

- B. If there are significant expenditures coming up, Joan suggests money be moved from the ING Direct account to the checking account. (NOTE: Membership dues are due this month.)
4. Librarian's Report - Karen MacDonald
 - A. For those interested in genealogy research, the library can now offer www.ancestry.com to library patrons. The program is not accessible to home computers, but may be accessed on the library's public use computer.
 - B. The Town Library Trustees are considering how to spend the money given in Vicky Wolfe's memory. Vicky was a long time library patron who passed away last year.
5. Children's Program Director's Report - Bonnie Angulus
 - A. The ornament making program held the day of the Town Tree Lighting in December was very successful. Bonnie showed the group samples of the ornaments. 36 children participated and 117 ornaments were made. Bonnie has heard from a number of parents who appreciated the activity for their children. Bonnie will consider offering an additional session next year, bringing the number of sessions to four. She would need more teen helpers to do this.
 - B. Winter Story Time sessions are underway and full
 - C. This year there will be a winter Lapsit program offered beginning in February for the library's youngest patrons.
 - D. Both book groups for the elementary school children are underway and going well.
 - E. Teen Times, for grades 7-10, is going well. The group recently made duct tape belts and purses. This inspired the group to make covers for Kindles.

- F. The upcoming summer's reading program theme will be "One World, Many Stories."
- G. Both Karen and Bonnie are working with the Mont Vernon Village School staff with the idea to have the library community tie in with the following reading programs the school is implementing this year: through the Heifer Project, "Read to Feed".
6. Membership Report - Karen MacDonald reporting
 - A. Please note dues for 2011 are now due. Money or checks, made out to The Friends of the Library, may be dropped off at the library or mailed to the library. (Look for the four membership options on the back page of this newsletter.)
 - B. To date: 12 regular members; 25 lifetime members.
7. Trustees' Report - Karen MacDonald reporting - the Trustees met last week.
 - A. Jane King will run for Town Library Trustee. John Benjamin's term is up this March.
 - B. Library accessibility to those who are handicapped remains an issue. A group approached the library interested in meeting at the library for classes in Spanish.. One member in the group is in a wheelchair and couldn't get into the library. The group will meet elsewhere.
 - C. Karen is working on the annual State of the Library report she presents to the Town Library Trustees.
 1. The report will include the effectiveness of the new downloadable books program sponsored by the state. Our library paid $220.00 last year to participate. 250 books were downloaded which calculates to less than $1 per book. The Nashua Public Library paid $2500 for access to the program and over 10,000 books were downloaded. The charge to libraries is based on the size of each town. Considering the cost of an audio book, this program is quite a savings.

2. There was a lively discussion on the future of libraries and how different they are becoming and will be in the future given the technological changes that are rapidly affecting the dissemination of printed material. With Kindles, Nooks, iPods, etc. things are changing. Karen told about vending machines, like the ones you see in some grocery stores with movies, that some larger libraries are now using for books. You use your library card to check out the book, then return it when you've read it. No charge of course to the library patron, though Karen pointed out the vending machine is very expensive. Alice Corbett commented there will always be some printed matter that will remain in book form. All agreed libraries are doing well to keep up with the times as their roles become much more diversified.

8. Newsletter - Stephanie Lindsey, Editor
Request all copy be sent to Stephanie by Friday, January 28.

9. OLD BUSINESS

- A. Trip to the MFA tabled until the next meeting - a spring trip is more likely.
- B. Friends Insurance. In checking with other libraries in the area, no Friends' groups carry additional insurance. We will not pursue this.

- C. Movie Night using the Movie License USA featuring "Eat, Pray, Love" was not well attended in part because of the rescheduling of other activities at the school and in town. Bonnie plans to use it one afternoon during the school winter vacation. It was also suggested that perhaps the Friends could sponsor a movie and discussion during the day for members of the community who don't like to drive at night. The room darkening window shades should work for a daytime movie. Any group may use the license. There is no charge. Please contact the library if interested.

10. NEW BUSINESS

- A. Murder Mystery Evening - tabled until the next meeting
- B. New plans, programs, needed funds for the year?
 1. Karen suggested hosting a NH Humanities Council program in the spring. Suggestions: Steve Blunt's program on the Hutchinson Singers who have a tie to Mont Vernon; Calvin Knickerbocker's programs, one focuses on popular music during WWII., the other on funny songs that have made us laugh from colonial times onward. (NOTE: It is believed applications for NHHHC programs must be submitted 10 weeks before the program presentation.)
 2. Karen reminded everyone the library has been re-keyed, so old keys no longer work. Keys are available to individuals on an as needed basis. If lost, there is a $5 replacement charge.

3. Sally Hogan asked if it's looking likely there will be a Spring Gala this year. Karen understands that while there is currently no Recreation Commission, former member Nancy Foster is working to see who she can get on board. Two things under consideration are not hold the parade and to host activities up on the McColom Field.
4. Alice Corbett asked about offering advertising space in the newsletter to the community. This could include things such as yard sales. There would be a charge which could help in the fund raising department. This idea will be discussed at the next meeting after Stephanie Lindsey, Newsletter Editor, has given her opinion. How much space, how often and what the charge would be need to be considered.

Next meeting will be on Monday, February 28, 2011.

Meeting adjourned at 8:40p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Sally Hogan
