Back to School, Back to Book Clubs

Junior Book Clubs are back at the library just in time for the start of school. Miss JoAnn heard your cry for more, more, MORE and has added two new book clubs. Books are available to borrow at the library starting in September. Groups will meet on Wednesdays after school from 4-5 p.m. for a snack, book discussion, and a craft. Meetings will begin in October. Space is limited. Registration is required. Questions? Call 673-7888 or stop in the library for more details. See the list below for the name of your group.

WHICH GROUP ARE YOU IN?

- Eager Readers: 1st & 2nd grade (1st Wed. of the month)
- Bonkers for Books: 3rd & 4th grade (2nd Wed. of the month)
- Page Turners: 5th grade (3rd Wed. of the month)
- In the Middle: 6, 7, & 8th grade (4th Wed. of the month)
- Eat Your Words: High school (1st Friday of the month)

It’s almost time for Fall Storytime!

Pre-school children ages 3-5 are welcome to join Miss JoAnn for a full hour of stories, felt boards, songs, crafts and fun. Just one session this year on Thursdays at 11:00 a.m. for 8 full weeks. Session begins on Thursday, September 15th. Registration required. Space is limited. Call 673-7888 or stop in to hold your spot today!

Fun at Lamson Farm Day

Save the date and spend the whole day at Lamson Farm on Saturday, September 24th from 11-3:00 p.m. Activities include free hayrides, pony rides, games, pocket lady, and blacksmith demonstrations. You can also purchase a chicken BBQ lunch, listen to live music and more. The Friends of the Library will be there sponsoring another beautiful Community Art Project led by JoAnn Kitchel. Be sure to stop by and add to the masterpiece.

Cookbook Club

Do you love to cook? Join the library Cookbook Club and make a recipe from the featured cookbook to add to the potluck meeting on Monday, September 19th at 6:00 p.m. September title: The Silver Palate Cookbook by Julee Rosso & Sheila. Books available to borrow at the library. New members always welcome!

Canterbury Shaker Village

Reminder that we have a fantastic pass for Canterbury Shaker Village at the library to check-out. A historic site and museum in Canterbury, NH. One of a number of Shaker communities founded in the 19th century. “Canterbury Shaker Village offers visitors a variety of entertaining, educational and engaging experiences in one of the most picturesque settings in northern New England. Guided and self-guided tours, accessible historic buildings, family activities, exhibits, educational programs, special events, unique shopping, exceptional dining and breathtaking grounds offer you more than you can do in a day. All exhibits, guided tours, self-guided tours, craft demonstrations, and access to the Village grounds are included in the price of admission.”

Contact the library for reserving the passes, more details can be found on page 4.
MONT VERNON HISTORICAL SOCIETY NEWS

Museum to be OPEN on September 10 from 1-4 p.m.

The Mont Vernon Historical Society Museum will be open on Saturday, September 10, from 1-4 p.m. The museum is located on the second floor of the Town Hall. It opened twenty-six years ago in 1990. There is no charge to visit the museum.

The recently restored 1858 map of Hillsboro County is now back on the wall. See if you can find Mount Vernon as it was known at that time. The map had deteriorated over the years and was in need of attention. Thanks to the generosity of the Nipmugs chapter of The Questers in Amherst, and donations from individuals and the Mont Vernon Historical Society, the map looks as it once did.

Other exhibits of interest include the window and a bank of mail boxes from the post office that was located behind the general store from 1975-95. Lamson Farm and Grand Hotel memorabilia, two quite rare antique Nutter clocks, a row of eight David Dutton clocks, and a quilt made by the King’s Daughters’ organization that includes a square that is over 150 years old are also on display. One corner of the museum holds items of interest on the schools that have been in Mont Vernon over the years. The McCollom Building was the home for four different schools beginning with Appleton Academy (1852-1871) and ending with the Mont Village School (1947-1989). Some items and photos of the current Mont Vernon Village School are also included in this area. There is also a small library in the museum and a selection of historical society books, note cards, sweatshirts, and T-shirts for sale in the museum’s store.

The museum will also be open Saturday, October 8, from 1 to 4 p.m. It will then be closed until Spring Gala Day in May 2017. Both the Amherst and Milford historical society museums will be open at the same time in September and October.

Consider supporting the museum by becoming a member. New members are always welcome. Annual dues are $10; lifetime dues are $100. (Dues to go up in 2017.) Become a member when visiting, or mail to the Mont Vernon Historical Society, PO Box 15, Mont Vernon, NH. Checks made out to Mont Vernon Historical Society. Questions contact Sandy Kent at slkent57@gmail.com.

2. $334. collected from Donations / matching Corporate gifts YTD 2016
3. August Report
   b. Capital One Account $ 8,272.39 August 15, 2016
   c. Fidelity Account $26,215.97 August 15, 2016
   d. Total $38,506.71

Membership
2 new members were welcomed. A reminder will be sent out to all members who have not renewed that if you renew now, you will receive 3 extra months to your membership.

Librarian's Report
The listing for a new, part time library assistant has been posted. This position is for 6 hours per week (Wed 5-8pm and Sat 10am-1pm) and starts on September 7. Applications are being accepted until Friday and interviews will be conducted next week.

Bell Cleaners have cleaned the windows at the library and they are sparkling! A special thank you to the Daland Trust for providing this for the library.

There are 2 new Daland Trustees, Dan Foley and Kirk Pomeroz. The FOTL welcome them to the Board.

The Summer Reading Program for Adults ends next week. Weekly raffle gift cards have been given out throughout the summer and there are two more to go! Stop by the library and get your name in the drawing.
The Big Read program launches September 18. The library has received 20 copies of the featured book, The Grapes of Wrath by John Steinbeck. Please stop by to pick one up. Each library in the Hillstown group is putting on a special event during the course of the program. The Daland Library will be hosting a table at Lamson Farm Day with posters, bookmarks and lots of information about the book, its setting and author. Labelle Winery is hosting a kick-off party on September 18 and all are welcome. Tickets are $10. See the invitation at the library for details. A book discussion with a facilitator and refreshments will also be held by the Daland Library in October (date TBA).
A special thank you to the FOTL for the tents! These have already proved their usefulness with the summer reading program. There are plans to use them again at Lamson Farm Day and for Halloween.
Lamson Farm has asked us to advertise in this month’s newsletter.
Mont Vernon resident, Scott Foster, has offered his gardens to the FOTL. He has invited us to come by this fall to choose what plants we'd like to have for the library gardens and to come dig them up in the spring. Thank you to Scott for keeping us in mind!

Children's Librarian Report
Two new book clubs have been requested and will be added for the school year. One is for 1st & 2nd graders (Eager Readers) and one is a book discussion group for Teens (Eat Your Words). The addition of 2 new clubs, plus the 3 we already have, means an increase in costs. JoAnn requests $650 from the FOTL for these clubs. A motion was passed to provide the $650.
Storytime has been changed to one session (Thursdays at 11:00 AM.) JoAnn will continue her Kindergarten outreach at Mont Vernon Village School as well.

Trustees Report
No trustee was present at today’s meeting.

Newsletter
Submissions to the newsletter must be received by this Friday, August 26.

Old Business
Summer Reading Program: 200 children participated and the playground days were well attended. Aida Norda won the bicycle – congratulations Aida! We had a medal ceremony for the top readers and a special end-of-summer program featuring Keith Munslow which was also well attended.

New Business
Lamson Farm Day: volunteers are needed for the FOTL membership drive and water bottle sale. A sign-up sheet is in the library. JoAnn and Bonnie will be having a community craft table which will produce a large piece of art that can then be raffled off or hung in one of the town’s buildings. It will continue the theme of butterflies which is being featured at the library this September.

Library Garden Clean-up is October 6 (rain date Oct. 7) from 9-11 AM. Volunteers are needed. Sign-up sheet is in the library. Bring your work gloves, water and garden tools!
Halloween: Kelly Merryfield has volunteered to help purchase the toys again this year. Thank you Kelly! Volunteers will be handing them out on the 31st. If the budget for this event is $400 or less, MK McNamara made a motion to provide additional funds to total no more than $500. The motion was passed.

November Election Bake Sale: the FOTL will once again have a bake sale table on November 8 at the MVVS. Bakers and Sellers are needed! A sign-up sheet is at the library. Baked goods can be dropped off throughout the day or the night before. Starbucks has once again agreed to provide coffee and paper products for the event.

The next meeting of the FOTL is September 26 at 7:30 PM.

Respectfully Submitted,
Dana Laviano
Next book in the Morning Book Discussion Program will be Victoria’s Daughters by Jerrold M. Packard. The discussion will be held on Monday, September 12, at 10 a.m., at the library. The selection, published in 1999, is non-fiction. England’s Queen Victoria, who ruled for over a quarter of a century, had five daughters: Vicky, Alice, Helena, Louise, and Beatrice. Packard’s research focuses on these women whose lives, including their marriages, were controlled by their mother. They experienced tragedy as did their children.

The dates and list of books for the rest of the year are as follows:

- September 12 (Labor Day is September 5) – non-fiction – Victoria’s Daughters by Jerrold M. Packard
- October 3 – fiction – Brooklyn by Colm Toibin
- November 7 – fiction – A Century of November: A Novel by W.D. Wetherell
- December 5 – non-fiction – The Stories Behind the Best-loved Songs of Christmas by Ace Collins

Alternatives in case a title is not available:
1. fiction – A Man Called Ove by Fredrik Backman
2. fiction – The Little Paris Bookshop by Nina George
3. non-fiction – Crashing Through: The Extraordinary True Story of the Man Who Dared to See by Robert Kurson

Between 7-11 people participate in each discussion. They usually meet the first Monday each month. The meetings last an hour and a half to two hours. Participants take turns bringing a light refreshment. No attendance requirement – attend discussions that are of interest. The library purchases a copy of each selection that may be checked out by library patrons when the book is not reserved for the discussion. Copies of the books are made possible through inter-library loan and are available at the library.

The program is suitable for adults and open to Mont Vernon residents at no charge. For bookkeeping purposes, non-residents wanting to borrow a book will need to join the library, annual fee is $15. New members are always welcome. Questions call the library at 673-7888.

Co-facilitators: Mary Rounds & Sally Hogan
